Chamber Mixer at Versailles Florist & Greenhouse last Friday was very entertaining. For those of you who missed it, we had a great time. Debbie Hutchison gave us the grand tour, showed us around the greenhouse, an 84 year old facility. We shared food, fun and enjoyable time. Thanks, Debbie. Here's a picture of Debbie Hutchison, Doris Hilty, Jan Tatangelo & Bobbi Garber admiring the 50+ year old live bougainvillea in the Versailles Florist & Greenhouse.

Ribbon Cutting Ceremonies last week were:

WANT TO BE A CHAMBER SPOTLIGHT LIKE THIS ? CALL THE CHAMBER OFFICE AT 573-378-4401 OR DENISE MCMILLAN, MARKETING DIRECTOR AT THE LAKE TODAY AT 573-301-8305. GREAT AD SEEN BY THOUSANDS OF PEOPLE IN THE AREA.

ROLLING HILLS COUNTRY CLUB – STEVE NOLAWSKI has committed to play 100 holes of golf in one day. Playing one ball and one hole at a time, he will raise money for the Gateway PGA Foundation and assigned charities at Rolling Hills Country Club. It will be a difficult yet rewarding journey. Your pledge of $1, $2 or $5 or anything per hole would be greatly appreciated and go a long way to providing important funding for the charities supported by the Gateway Section's PGA Golf Day. 70% of your donation goes directly towards the Gateway Section PGA Foundation, a 501 © (3) non-profit entity. The Foundation supports: Ranken Jordan-A Pediatric Specialty Hospital, Hospice of Southern Illinois, and growth of the game efforts in Northern Illinois and outstate Missouri. The remaining 30% of proceeds will support Gateway PGA Junior Golf, Member Education and Tournament Programs.
